Dark Horse May Be Sprung, but Not Regarded as Likely.

Judge Powers Has No Opposition for Congressional Nomination-Uncertainty as to Other Places.

One of the certainties of the Democratic State convention, which will be organized at the Salt Lake Theater this forenoon at 19:39 o'clock, is the nomination of Judge Orlando W. Powers for member of Con

No opposition has developed to the Judge, and this old Democrat, who has been Azzied by the labors for his party, will doubtless make the fight against present Congressman Joseph Howell.

An attempt was made yesterday to center the forces of the opposition to Moyle on some one, with the hope of defeating the lawyer, but the general belief is that Movie will win on first or second ballot.
There is bare possibility that former Congressman Brigham H. Roberts will be sprung as a dark-horse candidate for Govcinor, but this is not considered as at all cinor, but this is not considered as at all serious.

Either Wells, Roylance or Nebeker may be nominated, yet this is not thought at all probable. Moyle is bitterly opposed, but he is in possession of an organization that is winning support as delegates arrive and he has iong ways the lead.

Beyond the gubernatorial and Congressional candidates little can be said of the probable work of the convention. The Democrats are by no means united. Factional differences have disturbed the party for several weeks and these do not disappear as the convention approaches.

Judge Henderson will preside as temporary chairman. J. J. Hongaard will be temporary secretary.

JUDGE ROLAPP RENOMINATED. Again Chosen by Democrats as Judicial Candidate in Second District.

Special to The Tribune. OGDEN, Scpt. 7.-Judge Henry H. Rolapp was this afternoon renominated by the Democrats of the Second Judicial district for District Judge, and A. G. Horn was named for District Attorney. The Democratic Judicial convention for the Second Judicial district convened at the county courthouse at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Judge Dee called the convention to order and named J. H. Wilcox of Davis county as temporary chalrman and Julian Robinson of Morgan county as temporary secretary. Committees on credentials and permanent organization and order of business were then appointed. Afterward the convention took a recess to allow the committees to prepare their reports.

The credentials committee, upon reassembling of the convention, reported recommending that each county be allowed to cast its full representation, as follows: Weber, 50; Morgan, 6; Davis, 19. The report was adopted.

The report of the committee on permanent organization and order of business was then received and adopted.

When nominations for District Judge were called for, A. G. Horn of Ogden secured the floor and named H. H. Rolapp, and after numerous seconds, he was named unanimously.

Judge Rolapp was called before the convention and made a short talk, thanking the delegates for the honor and assuring them of a Democratic victory in the coming election.

them of a Democratic victory in the attening election.

Fred A. Shiells then secured the attention of the chair, and nominated Albert G.
Horn Mr. Horn's name received many seconds, and he was named by acciamation. He also made a short speech, thanking the convention for the nomination, and made predictions of Democratic victory that included everything from ocean to ocean—he had not yet read the returns from Vermont.

After deciding to appoint the several county chairman as members of the Judicial committee, and authorizing this committee in conjunction with the nominees, to select the campaign committee, and selecting the ancient rooster as a party emblem, the convention adjourned.

OSBORNE HAS A CINCH.

Is Unanimous Choice of Wyoming Democrats for Governor.

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Sept. 7 .- The Democratic State convention which met here today completed its permarent organization this evening. Ex-Gov. Osborne made a vigorous speech on the exploiting methods of the Republican party, and criticised the President severely for his practical defiance of the Constitution and the substitution of a despotic will in the administration of National Judge S. T. Corn also addressed the convention. He spoke of the necessity of a well-organized minority party for the good of the public service and the duty of Democrats to organize and prosecute a vigorous campaign, matter whether it was a winning or losing fight. No nominations will be made until tomorrow. Ex-Gov. Osborne is the unanimous choice of the convention for Governor, but has not yet consented to be the nominee. S. T. Corn will be renominated for the Supreme bench, and T. S. Taliaferro is the leading candidate for Congress.

The platform, unanimously adopted, declares that the National Irrigation law was drawn up and offered by a Democratic Senator and was carried by Democratic votes against the strong op-position of Republican leaders in Congress; condemns the partisan administration of the forestry laws, the extrav-agance of the State Administration; calls for an anti-shoddy law to pro-tect wool-growers, and for legislation arbitration compulsory labor disputes.

Cache County Delegates for Moyle.

Special to The Tribune.

LOGAN, Utah Sepi. 7.—The Cache county delegation to the Democratic State convention left this morning. The strong Moyle scattleners still has hold of the boys and the Salt Laker will receive two-thirds of the delegation. Little by little the inner workings of the preliminary inhors of the convention and the victory for the Moyle followers is all the more complete when it becomes known what they were up against. There were two slates in the convention, the Moyle followers being led by Jed M. Blair, Ed Hansen, William Murray and others, while the other side was marshaled by Aaron F. Farr, Farr was thoroughly routed, having to be content with the place of afternate, while his lleutenants were left out entirely. Special to The Tribune.

Large Majority of Strikers Vote Against Calling Off the Labor War.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The voting by the local unions interested on the question of whether the stockyards strike shall be declared off is not over, and the count of the ballots showed that a majority of the butcher workmen had not voted, so another ballot has been ordered. Some of the other unions are awaiting the action of the butchers and cutters before voting on the question of going to work or not.

Big Majority for Strike.

The vote of the organizations was on a proposition to declare the strike off. Out of 25,000 strikers 2403 voted to return to work and 25,597 to remain on strike until a fair proposition embracing arbitration can be obtained. A compilities has been amounted to visit committee has been appointed to visit e packers. With the declaration that the majority had voted to continue the strike nouncement was made that the fight would be prosecuted with renewed vigor. Secretary Tracy of the Allied Trades conference board stated that at miduleth all midnight all meat would be declared

Leaders in Quandary.

The strikers having voted to continue the stock yards struggle until better terms can be secured, their leaders tonight are in a quandary as to what the next move shall be. When the result of the vote of the men, defeating the pro-position to return to work, was an-nounced today, it was stated by the union officials that a second bailet would be ordered at once. Shortly after the announcement was made, however, the plan was abandoned, and efforts were begun to secure another conference with the packers. In this the strikers were unsuccessful, and then a second announcement was made that the order issued last week placing all meat on the infair list would so into meat on the unfair list would go into effect tonight.

Allied Trades Must Consent.

While arrangements were being made to put this order into effect it was sud-denly discovered by some of the leaders that the allied trades conference board would have to give their consent to the order before it could be enforced, and that it would be impossible to put the manifesto into effect tonight, as the allied trades conference board would not be able to arrange for a meeting of its manifests with the contraction. members until tomorrow. It was then stated that the central organization would meet tomorrow at 11 o'clock to consider the matter.

Packers Hold Conference.

Following the announcement that the strikers had voted to continue the strike a meeting attended by repre-sentatives of all the packers was held at the offices of the National Packing company. What took place at the con-ference is not known, but after the meeting it was stated by one of the packers that no opportunity would be given the labor leaders to present a pro-GOLD position embracing arbitration, as was being planned by the strikers.

At Other Points.

At Fort Worth, Tex., the striking butcher workmen today voted to de-clare the strike off at the packing-plants and to return to work under the old conditions. The vote was practically unanimous. In Omaha 200 packing house strikers

cturned to work today as a result of the vote taken yesterday on the question of discontinuing the strike

MAJOR EGAN BRINGS SUIT.

The Surgeon Wants Record of His Trial Amended.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 .- Maj. Peter R. Fgan, surgeon in the United States army, brought suit today against W. H. Taft, Secretary of War, to compel him to remove from the record of court-martial roccedings adjudging him (Egan) not guilty of charges of neglect of duty, the indexement on the court's findings of Col. Sanno, the reviewing officer, then commanding the Department of the Colorado, which indexement, the complainant says, is, in effect, punishment for alleged offenses of which he was found not guilty at Fort Douglas, Utah, in December, 1991.

Maj. Egan was court-martisled on the charge of having neglected to properly treat a number of soldiers who were placed under his care as post surgeon at Firt Douglas. The men who were alleged to have been mistre that Sanno was at the time the Department of the Colo-virtue of his office, preside ccurt-martial.
